

Adrian D. Godboldt

1307 Sunfield Dr.
Clarksville, TN 37042
(931) 980-4541 [C]

adriangodboldt@gmail.com

EDUCATION:

DOCTOR IN PHILOSOPHY, Anthropology

August 2022 – Present

University of Kentucky

- Current GPA 3.9/4.0
- Graduate certificate in Social Theory
- Graduate certificate in Gender & Women Studies

MASTER OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, Applied Anthropology

August 2019 – May 2022

University of Kentucky

- GPA 3.9/4.0
- Graduate certificate in Latin America and Caribbean Studies

BACHELOR OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, Anthropology

August 2015 – May 2019

University of Tennessee, Knoxville

- Graduated with Magna Cum Laude, 3.66 GPA/4.0
- Minor in Africana Studies

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

June 2019 – July 2019

Universidad de Antonio Nebrija,

- Enrolled in Hispanic Studies program with courses such as Art History of Spain and Modern-Day Politics of Spain
- During the program was tasked to interview locals relating to political and cultural topics in Spain and surveyed street art in Madrid

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, ANTHROPOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Lexington, KY

Teaching Assistant, ANT 103: Sports, Culture, & Society

August 2022 – Present

- Managed and facilitated three discussion sections with nearly ninety students per semester, including the development of a review presentation for each week
- Weekly grading of daily assignments, quizzes, and exams
- Helped service students' questions through in person office hours, and email, over their needs throughout the course

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

Lexington, KY

Research Assistant

March 2023 – Present

- Transcribed interviews for Dr. Shannon Oltmann & Shannon Barniskis in their research on the effects of legislation, which allows county judge executives to pick library board of trustees, on libraries in order to grasp the politicization of libraries in a political climate of banning books
- Contacting and scheduling potential interviewees
- Assisting in literature reviews
- Inductive coding of interview data

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

Lexington, KY

Research Assistant

May 2021 – August 2021

- Transcribed interviews for Dr. Fatima Espinoza's ethnographic research on the organizational capacity of a local radio station in their efforts to translate key information during the COVID-19 outbreak and informing marginalized communities in the area
- Conducted literature reviews on the effects of the privatization of radio stations and the organizational capacity radio stations have in responding to community needs during times of crisis

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, ANTHROPOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Lexington, KY

Research Assistant

August 2020 – Present

- Transcribed interviews for Dr. Bertin Louis' ethnographic research on Haitian-Bahamians in the Bahamas and belonging
- Managed classroom materials, such as books, articles, and other documents

TENNESSEE JOURNALIST

Knoxville, TN

Intern Writer

Feb. 2017 – April 2017

- Coordinated alongside a team of students to find and report on campus events
- Contributed articles through coverage of events, conducting interviews, and research
- Collaborated with editors to produce quality articles in a timely manner

ACADEMIC AWARDS:Lyman T. Johnson Fellowship

August 2019 – Present

University of Kentucky, Lexington

- A competitive fellowship awarded to outstanding students from diverse backgrounds, awarding up to $15,000 per academic year

OUTSIDE ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE:ASSOCIATION OF BLACK ANTHROPOLOGISTS

Lexington, KY

Student Interest Group Representative

January 2022 – Present

- Take detailed notes during executive board meetings
- Network, organize, support, and reach out to black anthropology students

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, ANTHROPOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Lexington, KY

Vice President, Anthropology Graduate Student Association

August 2021 – May 2022

- Served as a liaison between faculty and the graduate student association in weekly faculty meetings
- Searched and connected graduate students to serve as representatives on faculty committees
- Organized weekly social events for graduate students

RADIOLEX

Lexington, KY

Internship and practicum project

August 2020 – May 2022

- Working with a local community radio station, reviewing programming to ensure it is up to the standards of Federal Communications Commission (FCC)
- In support of a recent grant won by the radio station, writing a script to produce a training video for local community journalists

SHORT FILMS CLUB

Knoxville, TN

Club member

August 2016 – May 2019

- Public relations manager (Fall 2017 - Spring 2018); main tasks were to advertise club meetings and to relay information pertaining to club plans
- Organized film shoots involving location planning, assigning film crew roles, training members on how to handle film equipment, and renting production equipment
- Led, as well as, facilitated club meetings

Teacher's Aide, Sarah Moore Greene Magnet Academy

Sept. 2017 – Nov 2017

Knoxville, Tennessee

- Helped facilitate classrooms by passing out educational materials and ensuring good behavior from the students

SKILLS SUMMARY:

- Conversational Spanish
- Excel in communication and decision making
- Can work independently and within groups, both with motivation
- Hold technical skills in Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint, and Google drive
- Capacity in transcribing interviews
- Ability to conduct literature review