

CLEAN UP AND SHAPE UP! REVOLUTION, AESTHETICS, AND URBAN SPACE IN EGYPT

DR. JESSICA WINEGAR
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

FRIDAY, APRIL 6TH
4PM
WEST END BOARD ROOM
18TH FLOOR
PATTERSON OFFICE TOWER

Author of Creative Reckonings: The Politics of Art and Culture in Contemporary Egypt (2006), Dr. Winegar is a sociocultural anthropologist whose work investigates how people articulate understandings of history and political-economic change through cultural production and consumption, in particular through competing notions of culture and culturedness.

Sponsored by the Department of Anthropology, Department of Sociology, International Studies Program, and the Arts & Sciences College Enrichment Fund